VIGIL OF PENTECOST 9TH JUNE 2019

The Spirit who is God's secret is also his ecstatic Power through which God, without leaving himself into the world and spread d his presence, first of all in creation, then in the midst of men, through successive covenants, and finally in Christ and in his Church. This outpouring of the Spirit might be compared with the thrust of the spiral which rises up from the perfect movement of the circle and which, in the power of this movement, is released and tends ever to reproduce afresh the same circle outside itself. It advances by repeating itself, ceaselessly coming back on itself, yet without contradiction, in forms each time new, but nevertheless similar. In the same way the Spirit seeks to reproduce in the world, in forms varied and yet alike, the unique interior mystery of God. He moves in an incessant ebb and flow. He is expressed in terms apparently contradictory, he who is mystery and revelation, a power which is glorified in weakness, the glory and humility of God.
