Throughout this time between the Lord's resurrection and ascension, my dear brethren, the Lord in his providence fulfilled one purpose, taught one lesson, set one consideration before the eyes and ears of his followers: that the Lord Jesus Christ, who was truly born, truly suffered and truly died, should be recognised as truly risen.

The apostles and all the disciples had been filled with fear by his death on the cross, and their faith in the resurrection had been hesitant; but now they gained such great strength from seeing the truth, that when the Lord went up to heaven, far from feeling sadness, they experienced a great joy.

Indeed they had a great and mysterious cause for rejoicing. For in the sight of the vast company of the blessed, human nature was exalted above the dignity of all the creatures of the heaven, passing beyond the ranks of the angels, to receive an elevation that would have no limit until it was admitted into the eternal Father's dwelling, to share the glorious throne of him with whose nature it had been united in the person of the Son.

Pope St. Leo the Great

Please remember in your prayers all those in our parish who are not well and would like to be remembered, especially: Michael Hargaden, Bernadette Price, Jacob Sprackling (aged 2½ years), great-grandson of Nell Tregaskis and Elizabeth Allcock

We remember too all those whose anniversaries occur about this time.

Best wishes to Jay Shaw and Tasmeen Roberts who will be married in Monmouth on Thursday.
May they know joy and great blessings together.
